

SHIFTING STATES - QUICK REFERENCE: 'GETTING THERE'

11-15 December 2017

AAS/ASA/ASAANZ 2017 will take place on the main campus of the University of Adelaide. Located in the heart of Adelaide, North Terrace forms part of the city's cultural promenade surrounded by the state's art gallery, museum and library. The events and the academic programme are spread over a number of buildings, all marked on the venues map in this PDF.

The conference hub is the Ingkarni Wardli Atrium of Ingkarni Wardli building where the Reception desk is located, and where tea/coffee and lunches will be served (in sunny weather, catering tables will be moved to the lawns just outside). Panel sessions will run from Tue to Fri in two different buildings: Napier and Ligertwood. All keynotes will be given in the Scott Theatre (Schultz Building), a short distance from the Ingkarni Wardli Atrium. The Screen/Media/Art (the Labs) programme will take place in four different venues: Lab01 at the South Australian Museum and the Art Gallery of South Australia, Lab02 in Room 209 in Napier and Lab03 at the Madley Rehearsal Studio (off Pfitzner Court) of the Schulz Building (use the Scott Theatre Entrance on the Eastern side). You can read more about the Labs programme here.

The Lost on campus app may help you find your way on campus - download or search in Apple and Android app stores.

Getting to the University of Adelaide campus

If you've come by air

Adelaide airport is 5 miles from the town centre (and University). Adelaide's public transport (Adelaide Metro) offers a JetExpress bus to/from the airport/city, taking about 20 minutes. The nearest stop to the venue is G2/T3 on Grenfell St (marked on the map below).

There is also a taxi rank at the airport. Please note a $2 levy is added to fares for taxis leaving the airport. Following a recent change in South Australian law, Uber can now be used for pick-ups/drop-offs at the airport as well.

If you're coming by car from the direction of Melbourne

This is a stunning two-three day drive up the Great Ocean Road, and a recommended addition to your conference itinerary. If you don't wish to drive yourself, plenty of tourist buses ply the route. See the Visit South Australia website for more details.

Taxis & Uber

There are plenty of taxis available particularly in the city's key entertainment districts. It's worth booking a taxi for the busiest periods, such as Friday and Saturday nights. Most taxi companies have smartphone apps which make booking a taxi even easier. Taxi companies include:

- Independent Taxis +61 8 8400 6280; 132211
- Suburban Taxis +61 8 8400 6280; 131008
- Yellow Cabs +61 132227; 132227
- Wheelchair accessible taxis are provided by Adelaide Access Taxis: (T: 1300 360 940).

On Friday and Saturday nights between 23:00 and 04:30, there are a number of supervised taxi ranks providing a safe place to wait for a taxi after a night out in the city:

- North Terrace entrance to Adelaide Casino
- South-Eastern corner of Morphett and Hindley streets
- Pulteney Street near the entrance to Rundle Mall

- East Terrace near Rundle Street
- Eastern side of King William Street near the entrance to Rundle Mall

Uber is also widely used in Adelaide, and can now be used for pick-ups/drop-offs at the airport.

Public transport

Bus, tram and train timetables, fares and service information can be found on the Adelaide Metro (the local public transport system) website. To travel on the public transport system you can pay your fare using either a Metrocard or Metroticket. If you use public transport frequently or are staying in Adelaide for a week or more the Metrocard is not only more convenient but gives you access to cheaper fares. Metrocards need to be purchased prior to travelling and are sold at Adelaide Metro Information Centres and participating outlets. There is a one-off cost of $5 to purchase a Metrocard.

The Metrocard Visitor Pass is available to tourists and provides unlimited travel on all Adelaide Metro buses, trains and trams for three consecutive days from the day the Metrocard is first used. The Metrocard Visitor Pass can be purchased from Adelaide Metro Information Centres and participating outlets for $25 and includes maps with information on using Adelaide's public transport system, how to travel to some of the most popular attractions, and places to visit in the Adelaide metropolitan area. At the end of the three days the Metrocard Visitor Pass can be recharged and used as a standard Metrocard. See here.

In addition to Metrocard and Visitor Pass, Metrotickets are paper tickets that can be purchased onboard buses (from the bus driver), trains or trams (from ticket vending machines).

Adelaide by bike

There is reasonable cycling provision in Adelaide (including a route from the airport - the Linear Park Bike Path). Have a look at the cyclists' map for more info.

BikeSA offers daily free bicycle hire, or bicycles for multiple days for a small fee. Bikes can be picked up from multiple locations around the city. Helmets and locks are provided.

What to do on arrival?

We recommend going first to your accommodation, leaving your luggage, sleeping off some travel fatigue and then coming to the venue at a time when the reception desk is open or for the workshops (see below). At the reception desk, the student volunteers will check if you have registered and paid your conference fees, and if all is in order, they will hand you your conference bag and badge. You can then go on to enjoy the conference. If the reception desk finds any financial discrepancies in your record, your day will be brightened by the added adventure of locating the NomadIT office in the nearby Napier building and getting to know your colleagues while spending time in various queues in different locations.

Reception desk and conference (NomadIT) office

Located in the Ingkarni Wardli Atrium of Ingkarni Wardli building at the North Terrace campus of the University of Adelaide, the Reception desk is staffed by Shifting States volunteers, most of them students of the Anthropology Department at the University of Adelaide. On arrival at the Reception desk you will be given the conference bag, the printed programme and your badge. If you bought a ticket for the conference gala dinner when you registered, this will be printed on the badge (a cutlery icon). The desk will be open: Mon: 13:00-17:30; Tue: 08:30-17:30; Wed: 08:30-17:30; Wed: 08:30-17:30; Fri: 08:30-13:00.

Please note that while the Reception desk only opens at 13:00 on the first conference day, the workshops start already at 10:00 and 10:30 (ANSA postgraduate workshop in Napier 208, AAS Native Title in Napier 209).

All financial arrangements must be resolved by NomadIT's James, Rohan or Triinu in the conference office located in Napier 205. Please note that we only take payments in AUD cash – no cards!

While gala dinner tickets sold out a long time ago, NomadIT will run a ticket exchange for those who wish to sell or buy. We'll also provide those who have requested original printed receipts (or certificates of attendance) with manually signed documents.

The AAS membership administrator, Jo Thurman, will be also present in the conference office during the following times: Mon 14:30-16:30, Tue 8:30-10:55, Wed 14:30-17:00, Thu 8:30-10:55.

Emergency contact details

During the Conference, emergency messages should be sent to conference\(at\)shiftingstates.info. A representative of NomadIT can be contacted in emergency situations on the Australian cell/mobile number +61 49007 9595 or UK cell/mobile phones +447482613951 (Triinu Mets) and +447866425805 (Rohan Jackson).

The official number to contact Emergency services in Adelaide is 000 (zero, zero, zero).

Printing

If you need to print your conference paper, a boarding pass or other documents this can be done for 30c per page at the conference office in Napier 205.

Internet access

Visitors whose home institutions are part of the Eduroam network may use their home institution credentials to access the Eduroam wireless network at the University of Adelaide.

Shifting States guests without Eduroam credentials, can log on to the University of Adelaide's wifi network (UofA and UofA 5ghz) to receive complimentary internet access from 11-15 December from 08:00-18:00 each day. Username: Shifting2017, password: States17

Smoking

The University of Adelaide is a smoke-free campus, meaning that people are prohibited from smoking on university grounds. This includes indoors and outdoors areas and university-owned or controlled vehicles etc.

Money

Australia's national currency is the Australian dollar which comes in denominations of $5, $10, $20, $50 and $100 notes. Coins come in 5, 10, 20 and 50 cent and one and two dollar denominations. Currency exchange is available at banks, hotels and international airports, but you can also simply withdraw money with your card from an ATM. There are several ATMs in the Hub Central, the building right across from Napier. You can also use the Lost on Campus app to locate ATMs.

Making use of your portable device

As the programme inevitably changes after we go to press, we suggest using your mobile device to check the conference website. It might be worth checking the webpage of the panel you're thinking of heading to, in case someone's dropped out or a convenor has rearranged things. If you find the book a little heavy/inconvenient to carry around, we recommend downloading the PDF version.

The timetable, the panel session grid and the campus map follow. Full information is given in the conference programme which you'll collect from the reception desk along with your badge.

Travel safely!

Yours,

Triinu, with James and Rohan of NomadIT
